Jewish Community Center of Stamford
Annual Spring Gala

Saturday, March 24, 2018
Rockrimmon Country Club

AUCTION RULES & GUIDELINES

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. All guests must register at the reception desk and obtain their bidding numbers. Bids will only be honored with an assigned number.
2. Unless otherwise specified, dates and times are to be arranged through the mutual convenience of the donor and the buyer, lodging and airfare offerings are subject to space availability and reservations.
3. Unless otherwise noted, the deadline for claiming services will be one year from the date of purchase (March 24, 2019).
4. Payment must be made in full by cash, check, MasterCard, American Express or Visa. Items will be released upon payment.
5. The Jewish Community Center, Inc. (hereinafter "JCC") does not warrant either the quality or the value of the items or services auctioned. All items are sold in an "as-is" condition. Dollar values are estimated and provided by the donor and are not warranted by the JCC. Once purchased, items may not be returned or exchanged without the approval of the donor.
6. By participating in this Auction, each bidder recognizes that neither the JCC nor anyone who assists in conducting this Auction shall be liable for any occurrence resulting from this Auction by reason of use of auctioned items or services.

PAYMENT GUIDELINES

1. All merchandise must be paid for and removed at the conclusion of the evening. To help in expediting this process, we encourage all bidders to obtain and complete an Express Check-Out card at the check-in table or to provide payment information in advance of the Gala.
2. Winning bidders that do not have an Express Check-Out card on file may pay for their purchases by cash, check (payable to the JCC) or credit card (American Express, Visa and MasterCard accepted) at the cashier's table prior to picking up their merchandise.
3. If it is necessary for you to leave prior to the conclusion of the evening, you may come to the JCC beginning on Monday, March 26, 2018 to pay for and pick up your merchandise. If you did not complete an Express Check-Out card at the event or provide payment information in advance of the Gala, payment may be made at the time of pickup.

Contributions are tax deductible to the extent that the winning bid exceeds the market value and as permitted by applicable law.

SILENT AUCTION GUIDELINES

1. Clearly print your bidder number and dollar amount on the corresponding bid sheet for each item in which you are interested. If you are the opening bidder, be sure to meet the minimum opening bid written at the top of the sheet. Bids with illegible bidder numbers or dollar amounts will be invalidated.
2. Please make sure that your bid is higher than the previous bid by at least the minimum increment. Only bids in the stated minimum increment or multiples thereof will be valid.
3. We encourage you to check back frequently during the Silent Auction to make sure that you have the highest bid on the item(s) you want.
4. An announcement will be made five minutes prior to the closing of the Silent Auction to allow for final bids. Please make sure that your final bids are placed before the tables are closed.
5. At closing, the bid sheets will be collected and reviewed by the Auction Committee. The highest valid bid at the end of the evening for each item will win that item.

409 TWO TICKETS TO “A LETTER TO HARVEY MILK”

Estimated Value: $158

Opening Bid: $50

Bid Increment: $25

When Harry, an amiable but lonely retired kosher butcher, fulfills a writing assignment to compose a letter to someone from his past who’s dead, he writes not to his late wife Frannie, but to Harvey Milk, the first openly gay political leader in California. Barbara, Harry’s young lesbian writing teacher at the senior center, is stunned. Harry’s letter evokes life-changing revelations that neither could have foreseen. This musical, with its soaring score and deeply-felt, surprisingly funny lyrics, deals with issues of friendship and loss, the grip of the past, and the hard-won acceptance set in motion by the most unexpected people. A Letter to Harvey Milk was the winner of five awards at the New York Musical Theatre Festival, including Most Promising Musical. Expires on April 22, 2018. Tickets must be requested at least one week prior to performance.

706 THE GIFT WRAP NECKLACE BY ON THE ROCKS DESIGNS

Estimated Value: $1,295

Opening Bid: $650

Bid Increment: $50

Just as there are many ways to wrap a gift, there are many ways to wear this piece. The Gift Wrap Necklace is a unique blend of elegant jewelry and bohemian chic. The versatile, claspless, 36-inch leather necklace holds a stunning combination of 14 karat yellow gold, 18 karat white gold, sterling silver and pave diamond rondelles, and can be worn as a choker, a lariat or a simple hanging wraparound. The most popular choker style can be worn with a large bow tied at the back of the neck, or wrapped around the neck twice with a bow in the front, allowing the two rose cut diamond barrels to dangle below. It's the perfect accent piece for cocktail parties, date night dinners or as a subtle addition of bling to jeans and a t-shirt.

900 TENEMENT MUSEUM IN NYC

Estimated Value: $100

Opening Bid: $50

Bid Increment: $10

Enjoy four tickets to a Tenement Museum Tour in NYC. In the decades after World War II, the Lower East Side became one of New York's most diverse neighborhoods. There is so much to see at the Tenement Museum, and many different tours to choose from, featuring homes of Holocaust survivors, homes of garment workers, an interactive, recreated Chinatown garment shop, and family stores. These are all places where people struggled to adapt to an ever-changing neighborhood and achieve the American Dream. This museum is a must-see!
